The Information Advantage

AIHA is the leading resource that industrial hygienists and other OEHS professionals rely on to give them the tools and information they need to stay current on industry news, trends and best practices.

Community

Professionals join and stay with AIHA because of the access that it provides to a wide range of industry experts. Your colleagues are often your best source for in-depth insight and guidance. AIHA gives you the opportunity to connect with your colleagues around the globe.

Credibility

Whether you are a new or seasoned professional, AIHA provides professional development opportunities and gives you the tools to advance your career to the next level.

Advocacy

AIHA represents the profession in the public policy arena; helps protect the profession from legislation and regulations that may be detrimental; promotes the profession with government leaders; and provides "good science" to the policy making process that protects worker health.

AIHA members enjoy all the above benefits and more for just $190 per year.
